GUEST CONDUCTOR

Lieutenant Colonel Dale Harpham was appointed Director of the United States Marine Band on 28 April 1972. His previous position was that of Assistant Director since 1 May 1955. Prior to his appointment to the leadership staff, he served for more than twenty years as the Band's solo trombonist, cellist, vocalist, narrator of feature presentations, script writer, dance band leader, conductor of special ensembles and concert moderator.

His career began to take particular shape when, as a sixth-grade school boy in the village of Pleasant Lake, Indiana, he attended a concert by the Marine Band on concert tour in a nearby city. He promptly fell hopelessly in love with the organization and resolved to gain membership.

Lieutenant Colonel Harpham gives high praise to the public school music servants who helped him realize his goal: "I am unabashedly a product of the public school music system and have the greatest affection for those too-often unsung, talented, patient men and women who sacrifice in part their own personal technical development to encourage the artistic inclinations of the young." Summing up, he states, "I am a member of the Marine Band today because of the warm understanding and assistance of the public school music teacher."

Possessed with a penetrating musical insight, a keen sense of humor, Lieutenant Colonel Harpham brings to his guest appearances the most precious of all musical gifts, — the innate ability to inspire.
