WELCOME

Welcome to the University of Northern Colorado. We hope your stay, as an All-State Band participant or spectator, will be an enjoyable one. Please feel free to call on any faculty or staff member for assistance.

The University of Northern Colorado is the oldest and most widely known professional education institution in the Rocky Mountain area. Founded in 1890, the University has grown from a small group of local students to a University of over 11,000 students who may select programs from the Arts and Sciences, Professional Education or Applied and Professional Studies. Degrees offered at the undergraduate level include the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Music Education, and Bachelor of Science. Graduate programs lead to Master of Arts, Master of Music, Master of Music Education, Master of Science, Specialist in Education, Doctor of Arts, Doctor of Education, Doctor of Music Education, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees.

The Colorado All-State Band is an activity approved by and in cooperation with the Colorado High School Activities Association, Ray C. Ball, Commissioner, and the Colorado Music Educators Association, E'Rena Hockenberry, President.

JOHN P. PAYNTER

Since 1953, John P. Paynter has been Director of Bands at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, where he presently serves the School of Music as Professor and Chairman of the Department of Conducting and Performing Organizations. In addition to heading the bands, he teaches courses in conducting, band arranging, band techniques and orchestration. He is conductor for the University's musical productions, including the famed Waa-Mu Show. Under his direction the Northwestern University "Wildcat" Marching Band, Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Concert Band and Symphonic Band all rank with the finest of their kind.

Paynter was born and raised in Mineral Point, Wisconsin where he received his early training in music. He entered the School of Music at Northwestern University in 1946 and earned BM and MM degrees in theory and composition in 1950 and 1951, and served as Acting Director of Bands in 1950-51 while working toward his Masters degree. At age 23, he was appointed to the full-time faculty (in 1951), and became Director of the Marching Band and Assistant Director of Bands, as well as Instructor of Theory. Two years later, in 1953 and at the age of 25, he succeeded Glen Cliffe Bainum to become only the second Director of Bands in the history of Northwestern University.

Paynter is presently musical director and conductor of the internationally famous adult community band, the Northshore Concert Band of Wilmette (Illinois); editor of the New Music column of The Instrumentalist music magazine; an active composer and arranger with some 400 works to his credit and a busy traveler. Invitations to lecture and guest conduct have taken him to forty-eight of the fifty states, and to Canada, Europe, Japan and Africa. He has been honored with awards from such distinguished societies as Pi Kappa Lambda, Phi Eta Sigman, Tri-M Modern Music Masters, Phi Beta Mu, Kappa Kappa Psi, the National Band Association, The School Musician, The Instrumentalist, and the National Association of Music Clubs.
