All-State Band Clinicians

Dr. Robert C. Fleming

Dr. Robert C. Fleming is Professor of Music, Associate Director of Bands and Director of the Sun Devil Marching Band at Arizona State University. He has degrees from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Carnegie-Mellon University, and Southern Illinois University (Doctor of Philosophy in Secondary Education). His Arizona State University Sun Devil Marching Band received the 1991 Sudler Trophy distinguishing it as one of the most outstanding marching band programs in the country. He also conducts the ASU Concert Band, and the Sun Devil Basketball Pep Band. Prior to his arrival at Arizona State University in 1974, he was Director of Bands at the University of Tennessee at Martin, Tennessee for seven years.

In addition to his duties at Arizona State University, Professor Fleming is an active marching and concert band clinician, adjudicator, and a member of numerous professional organizations. He served on the Board of Directors of the American Bandmasters Association from 1990 to 1993. He is Past President of the PAC 10 Band Directors Association and Past National President of the National Band Honorary Fraternity, Kappa Kappa Psi.

He currently continues to serve the fraternity as Chairman of the Board of Trustees. In 1989, Dr. Fleming was installed as an honorary member of Alpha Chapter of Phi Beta Mu, the International Bandmasters Fraternity. In 1993, Dr. Fleming Received the Bohumil Makovsky Memorial Award to Outstanding College Band Directors from Kappa Kappa Psi and in September of 1994, he received the Professional Fraternity Association's 1994 Faculty Award of Excellence.

Richard Scott Clary

Richard Clary is in his third year as Director of Bands and Assistant Professor of Music at the University of Kentucky in Lexington. His duties include Direction of the University Wind Ensemble, the "Wildcat" Marching and Basketball bands, the teaching of graduate level instrumental conducting, and administrative guidance over all aspects of a dynamic and comprehensive university band program. Prior to his appointment at UK, he served as a member of the music faculties of the University of Utah in Salt Lake City, the University of Arizona in Tucson, and Marcos de Niza High School in Tempe, Arizona. Ensembles under his direction have received consistent praise for their high levels of musical expression, clarity of texture, and authoritative command of a broad range of musical styles. During his brief time at the University of Kentucky, the University Wind Ensemble under his direction has received prestigious invitations to perform for both the 1995 Kentucky Music Educators Association In-Service Conference, and the 1996 Joint Convention of the Southern Divisions of the National Band Association and College Band Directors National Association.

Mr. Clary holds Bachelor and Master of Music diplomas in Music Education from the Arizona State University School of Music, and is a Candidate for the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Instrumental Conducting at the University of Washington in Seattle. He holds active memberships in several professional organizations including the Kentucky Music Educators Association, the Music Educators National Conference, the College Band Directors National Association, and he has served as a state chairman for the National Band Association. An active clinician, adjudicator, and guest conductor, Mr. Clary has served in these capacities throughout the United States, the District of Columbia, and in Canada. In addition to his activities in the "band world", he has also appeared as guest conductor with several professional ensembles including the Lexington (KY) Philharmonic, the Renton (WA) Civic Theater, and the Wichita Falls (TX) Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Clary resides in Lexington with his wife, Lauren and their two children, Emily and Ryan.
