All-State Band Clinicians

Joseph Hermann

Joseph Hermann is Professor of Music and Director of Bands at Tennessee Technological University in Cookeville, Tennessee, where he is responsible for an active and diverse program consisting of the University Marching Band, Symphony Band, Concert Band, Pep Band, and the Golden Eagle Brass.

Before his appointment at Tennessee Tech in 1989, Hermann was the Associate Director of Bands and the Director of the Pride of Arizona Marching Band at the University of Arizona, an Assistant Director of Bands at Indiana University and Director of Bands at East Tennessee State University. Additionally, he has served as an Educational Director for a music industry-based company out of Chicago, Illinois.

Hermann is sought after as a conductor, adjudicator and speaker and has presented clinics, workshops and has conducted in over thirty states, in Canada and throughout Japan. His symphonic bands have been featured ensembles at state, regional and national conventions; his interpretations have been broadcast on National Public Radio, and recordings of his ensembles have been issued as reference for music educators nationwide. He is a proponent of new music for the ensemble, has premiered numerous works for the band and remains an active participant in commissioning projects.

Committed to music education, Mr. Hermann has been instrumental in developing the Tennessee Conductors Symposium, a seminar for secondary-school instrumental and vocal conductors. This annual conference has grown to national proportions, features the United States' finest conductors as clinicians, and is uniformly committed to sustaining the teachers that conduct ensembles in the schools.

Hermann is a member of CBDNA, MENC, NBA, the Tennessee Bandmasters Association, serves as the editor for the New Music Reviews for the Tennessee Musician, and is a past board member of the Tennessee Music Educators Association. In 1996, Hermann was elected to the American Bandmasters Association. He is a member of Phi Beta Mu, a past President of the PAC-10 Band Directors Association, a past Province Governor for Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and holds honorary memberships in Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma.

Ray Cramer

Ray E. Cramer joined the faculty of the Indiana University School of Music in the fall of 1969. In 1982, Mr. Cramer was appointed Director of Bands. Under his leadership, the Indiana University Symphonic Band has earned an international reputation for outstanding musical performances including the 1982 ABA Convention, Indianapolis; the 1984 joint American Bandmasters Association, Japan Bandmasters Association Convention, Tokyo; the 1988 MENC National Convention, Indianapolis; the 1991 National CBDNA Convention in Kansas City, the 1994 National MENC Convention in Cincinnati, the 1995 ABA Convention in Lawrence, Kansas and other regional and state conventions. In addition to his administrative responsibilities as the Department Chairman, Mr. Cramer teaches courses at the graduate level in wind conducting, history and literature.

He is a member of ABA, CBDNA, NBA, WASBE, MENC, IMEA, IBA, CIDA, and is affiliated with Phi Mu Alpha, Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma, Phi Kappa Delta and Phi Beta Mu. Mr. Cramer is a recipient of the Student Alumni Council Senior Faculty Award (1983), the Kappa Kappa Psi Distinguished Service to Music Award (1988), the CIDA Director of the Year Award (1988), the Phi Beta Mu, International Assembly, Outstanding Bandmaster Award (1988), and the Kappa Kappa Psi Bohumil Makovsky Memorial Award (1991). He is a past National President of the College Band Directors National Association and has served as president of the Indiana Bandmasters Association, the North Central Division of CBDNA and the Big Ten Band Directors Association.

Mr. Cramer is actively involved in clinics and guest conducting engagements throughout the United States and several foreign countries. He has served as a guest conductor on the faculty of the Musashino Academia of Music in Tokyo, Japan in the Fall of 1990, the Summer of 1992 and 1995.

A native of Illinois, Mr. Cramer has degrees from Western Illinois University and the University of Iowa. In December 1991, he was presented with an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from his alma mater of Western Illinois University.
