♦ ALL-STATE BAND CLINICIANS ♦

Dr. Wendy McCallum is Associate Professor and director of the Symphonic Band at Brandon University in Brandon, Manitoba, Canada where she teaches courses in music education and conducting.

McCallum holds a Bachelor of Music degree and a Bachelor of Education degree from Brandon University and completed a Master of Music in Instrumental Conducting at the University of North Dakota with Gordon Brock and James Popejoy. She received her Doctor of Musical Arts from the University of North Texas where she served as a Doctoral Conducting Associate and Teaching Fellow in the Wind Studies Department with Eugene Migliaro Corporon. She completed her cognate studies in Music Education with Deborah Rohwer and Darhyl Ramsey. McCallum has been honored with invitation to membership at both Pi Kappa Lambda and Phi Kappa Phi.

She has served as the conductor of the Long & McQuade All-Star Wind Ensemble in Winnipeg, Manitoba, as guest conductor of the Winnipeg Wind Ensemble, as artistic director and conductor of the chamber ensemble Harmoniemusik in Frisco, Texas and as a solo and ensemble adjudicator and clinician for concert and jazz ensembles in Canada and the United States.

McCallum is a regular contributor to the publication and recording series Teaching Music Through Performance in Band and Teaching Music Through Performance in Beginning Band, is Past President of the Manitoba Band Association and Vice-President of the Canadian Band Association.

Gary W. Hill is the Evelyn Smith Professor of Music and Director of Ensemble Studies in the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts School of Music at Arizona State University. In addition to overseeing the School's large ensembles program, he conducts numerous instrumental groups and teaches graduate conducting courses.

Prior to Hill's appointment at ASU, he was Director of Bands at the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music, where he also served as Music Director for the Kansas City Youth Wind Ensemble, and conducted two professional groups: the Kansas City Symphony Brass Ensemble and newEar, a chamber ensemble devoted to contemporary music. Previously, he held a similar post at East Texas State University and was Associate Director of Bands at the University of Colorado, Boulder.

Gary W. Hill is one of the most sought after guest conductors and clinicians in the wind band field; during the past four decades, he has presented more than one hundred workshops on conducting and rehearsal technique for instrumental teachers of all levels and has served as a clinician for thousands of bands and orchestras.

Hill's current creative/research agenda includes: the use of digital technology in performance and conducting pedagogy; an exploration of biochemical reactions spawned by the musical process; and work on a monograph concerning the past, present, and future of instrumental music education.
