ALL-STATE BAND CLINICIANS

Following a distinguished 33-year teaching career, Professor Paula A. Crider continues to share her passion for making music through an active schedule as guest conductor, lecturer, clinician and adjudicator. She has enjoyed engagements in 48 states, Canada, Ireland, the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Singapore, Italy and Australia. She is Professor Emerita at The University of Texas where she was twice awarded the "Eyes of Texas" Award for distinguished teaching.

Professor Crider has taught in the public schools at all levels, and holds the unique distinction of having been the first female in the state of Texas to serve as director of bands at a class 5-A high school. Her Crockett High School Bands in Austin, Texas earned twelve consecutive University Interscholastic League "Sweepstakes Awards" for musical excellence, received national recognition on the concert stage, and were twice named Texas 5A State Marching Champions. Ms. Crider was the recipient of the National Band Association's "Citation of Excellence," Presented by Dr. William J. Revelli for her band's performance at the NBA National Convention.

During her tenure at The University of Texas, Professor Crider conducted the Symphony Band, the Longhorn Marching and Concert Bands, and served as instructor for undergraduate conducting, Brass Methods, Graduate Wind Literature, supervised student teachers and served as administrator for the Longhorn Music Camps. She has also served as Interim Director of Bands at Columbus State University, and at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

Awards and honors include the Tau Beta Sigma/Kappa Kappa Psi "Outstanding Service to Music Award," the Sudler "Legion of Merit," The Women Band Director's International Rose, The Grainger Society Medal, the Kappa Kappa Psi Bo Makvosky Memorial Award, and the Midwest International Clinic Medal of Honor. In 2004, she was named the Texas Bandmaster's Association Bandmaster of the Year. She considers her greatest honor, however, to be the privilege of working with all who share a passion for excellence in making music.

Jerry Junkin has served as Artistic Director and Conductor of the Dallas Wind Symphony since 1993. In 2003 he was also appointed Music Director and Conductor of the Hong Kong Wind Philharmonia. Additionally, he holds the Vincent R. and Jane D. DiNino Chair for the Director of Bands at The University of Texas at Austin, where he also holds the title of University Distinguished Teaching Professor. He has served on the faculties of both the University of Michigan and the University of South Florida. In addition to his responsibilities as Professor of Music and Conductor and Music Director of the Texas Wind Ensemble, he serves as Head of the Conducting Division and teaches courses in conducting and wind band literature. He is a recipient of the Texas Excellence in Teaching awards, presented annually by the Ex-Student's Association, and his former students hold major positions throughout the world. In 2004, he was elected to the Academy of Distinguished Teachers and in 2005 was the recipient of the Fine Arts Achievement Award.

Maintaining an active schedule as a guest conductor, clinician and lecturer, he has appeared in those capacities in forty-eight states and on five continents. He spends his summers in residence at the Interlochen Arts Camp in Michigan, as well as appearing at major festivals throughout the world. In 2005 he was presented the Grainger Medallion by the International Percy Grainger Society in recognition of his championing of Grainger's works.

Mr. Junkin has served as President of the Big XII Band Director's Association and is a member of the Board of Directors of The John Philip Sousa Foundation, Past-President of the American Bandmasters Association, and Past President of the College Band Directors National Association. This past season he made his debut with the Tokyo Kosei Wind Orchestra and the Taipei Symphonic Winds, along with engagements in Germany, France and Austria.
