♦ ALL-STATE BAND CLINICIANS ♦

Diane Koutsulis is the Director of Bands and Arts Department Chair at Green Valley High School in Henderson, Nevada. Originally from Chicago, Diane has been teaching in the Clark County School District for the past 30 years. She received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Music from Western Illinois University. After teaching junior high band in Oswego, Illinois, for three years, she went on to complete the Masters of Music Education degree at Louisiana State University, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where she studied with Frank Wickes.

During her tenure in Las Vegas, Diane has built fine band programs and music departments at both Las Vegas High School (1982-91) and Green Valley High School (1991-present). Her groups have consistently garnered recognition for fine performances, and she has served as both guest clinician and conductor at various conferences throughout the Southwest.

Diane was named the 1999 Nevada Teacher of the Year and received the 1999 Milken Family Foundation National Educator Award. A member of the Clark County School District Teacher Hall of Fame, in March of 2003, she was inducted into the Nevada State Education Hall of Fame. In 2004, the Green Valley High School Symphonic Band performed at the Midwest Clinic in Chicago, IL. In 2005 and 2010, the Symphonic Band performed at Carnegie Hall in New York City. Last year, the Green Valley HS Marching Band performed in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City.

Diane is a member of College Band Directors National Association (CBDNA) as well as holding memberships in Nevada Music Educators Association (NMEA), Music Educators National Conference (MENC), and National Band Association (NBA).

Marcellus Brown came to Boise State University in the fall of 1989 as Director of Band Organizations and Professor of Trumpet. Presently, he teaches instrumental conducting and serves as the Director of the University Symphonic Winds and the Treasure Valley Concert Band. During the summer Mr. Brown serves as the director of the Boise City Band and is the Director of the Boise State University Summer Chamber Music Camp. Since 2007 he has been the director of the Hymns of Thanksgiving Orchestra, which presents an annual Thanksgiving concert that is broadcast on the regional ABC television station.

A native of Detroit, Michigan, Mr. Brown holds a Master of Music Degree in Trumpet Performance and Bachelor of Music Education Degree from the University of Michigan, where he took conducting classes with Elizabeth Green. He has done doctoral work at the University of Illinois where he studied conducting with Harry Begian, Professor Emeritus of Bands.

Mr. Brown has done extensive work as a guest conductor, clinician and adjudicator throughout the United States, which includes serving as a guest conductor of the Vandercook College Band at the 2011 Midwest Clinic. He has been recognized for his work and dedication as an educator at Boise State University as the recipient of the 2002 Excellence In Teaching Award presented by the LDS Student Association, the 2002 Faculty/Staff Larry G. Selland Humanitarian Award presented by the University Women's Center, and one of ten honored faculty to receive the 2003 Top Ten Student Scholar Awards.

In 2006 Mr. Brown was elected into the American Bandmasters Association. He has served as President of the College Band Directors National Association (CBDNA) Northwestern Division (2007-2009). In 2008 he was elected to a 2-year term to serve on the board of the National Band Association.
